Customer Reviews

Hoist the jib, batten the hatches and clear the decks! Get ready for an in-depth exploration to the land of granite cliffs and tall ships, salty air and agricultural fairs, lobster boats and Isle au Haut, breaching whales and seafaring tales with the most complete guidebook to this storied region.

This is a great, family-oriented book. Unlike many guides to Maine, which generally seem to be oriented to the bed and breakfast, antique browsing set, this book has a much broader range. It's also more down to earth. Its breezy, casual narrative style, and well laid out pages make it a pleasure to read. It's told me more about Mt. Desert Island and the surrounding area than any other book I've seen.
