Customer Reviews

One of the world authorities on African art, Ladislav Segy had a gallery in the East 50's in Manhattan that we used to visit when we lived in NY. Having just come back from Ghana in 1968, we were thrilled to revel in the massive collection Mr. Segy had there, and we spent hours talking about African art as we wandered through his collection with him. This book is accurate in details, the photos are great. If you need one book on African art for your library, this is the one.

Segy a collector and a early 20th century icon in the African ethnographic researchers, shows and explains the uses of many of the masks he himself collected, A great reference book at a very fair price
