Marshall Faulk: Rushing To Glory (Football Superstar)

Synopsis

When deciding which athletes to profile, our editors take into account not only a player's statistics, but also his character. SPI takes care to select athletes who are known to be community minded and can serve as role models. The biographical material on each athlete covers him from his earliest days to the present.

Rob Rains is the author or co-author of nine sports books, including "Mark McGwire: Home Run Hero" for St. Martin's Press. He also wrote "The St. Louis Cardinals: The 100th Anniversary History," as well as co-authored "Red: A Baseball Life" with Cardinal Hall of Famer, Red Schoendienst, and "Jack Buck: That's a Winner!" with broadcaster Jack Buck. A frequent contributor to "The Sporting News," Rains lives with his family in St. Louis.

I love the book..Marshall is a great gentleman in all ways! His story is one that should be heard by all young men (and women). His strength, his determination, his willingness to work hard on the field and off the field, his gratitude to all who gave him an opportunity and to his fans, his humility and his faith in God all have contributed to an athlete our youth can look up to!What I was not so happy about..is not the book it is the fact the seller charged me 2x's the face value of the book!!!

I ENJOYED READING THE BOOK.THANK YOU,ROGER
