Customer Reviews

informative, consoling, great way to relax and learn;

I was really dissappointed with this book. The quality of the paper was poor. The back of each page was black ink. It was awful.

I think the books are too dark on the inside. Too much black space.

I was very excited to receive this book after reading the reviews but I was greatly disappointed for 3 reasons. First, the description doesn't say that each specific coloring page is in first in white and then the next page in black. So there is only half of the designs really. Second, the pages don't tear out at all. And even the pages I can somewhat tear out, I have to trim the edge and then it is uneven, so it doesn't frame well. Third, the paper isn't thick at all. It's the regular thickness of my children's coloring book. I do like the sayings and designs (although they are rather simplistic and could have more detail) but I'm not sure why this is considered a Catholic book as it didn't contain anything specific to Catholicism.

returned, didn't like pages are too dark and it makes it hard to bring out the color. The picture are on every other page and not front and back

I am vision impaired so the large prints were so welcome

When it says 30 pages it means 30 and one sided only. 20 pages after are for writing prayers and devotions. I don't get it. Not at all what I expected. Got a refund.
