How To Overcome Negativity In The Workplace

Synopsis

Training to help you create a more positive, productive work environment. Is negativity a problem at your organization? What happens when negativity goes unchecked? Morale slips and productivity suffers. Communication comes to a halt and people stop working well together. And, if you're not careful, you may even become a carrier yourself. This eye-opening audio CD program will help you understand what it is that makes negative people behave the way they do ... offer you advice on how to blunt their harmful effects ... and even suggest ways to reverse their attitudes. This program belongs in every manager's training library - especially in those where major changes are imminent or taking place.
