Staying Home Alone (Life With Stef Book 2)

Synopsis

Have you ever been afraid? What about the first time your parents trusted you to be on your own? Were you scared then? I'm Stephanie Pixley. I'm twelve years old, practically an adult, and yet my parents have never let me stay on my own, or even let me babysit my two younger siblings. I hope my BIG chance doesn't get spoiled by someone who is either out to sabotage it, make me look bad, or is really hoping they can frighten me. Well, I've got news for them, they're not going to stop me from Staying Home Alone! When you're done reading my story, please leave me a message in the reviews and let me know about a time when you were scared and if you liked reading my story.

Customer Reviews

Growing up can be a scary thing, as young Stephanie finds out. She's jealous of her friend who is able to stay home alone and thinks staying home without her parents would be wonderful. When the opportunity presents itself, it's nothing like Stephanie imagined! A very enjoyable read for preteens that deal with today's issues and God's guidance.

I love this book a lot because it was fun and funny. It was a really good book and can't wait to read the next book to come out! :)

It was a well written book with a nice little plot twist and I will be waiting for the other books in the series.

This book was suspenseful! I am VERY scared to be home alone but hyperbaric one God didn't give us the spirit of fear im not as scared. I just wish the book was longer.:-)

It was an awesome book you guys should read it. I would say 11 or 12 year olds would like it especially girls. You can feel how the characters felt.

I have two girls ages 8 and 10 and they both loved this book. In the book, the main girl leads her friend to Christ. Highly recommend.

i love this book it is great it is so cool it has homeschool stuff I wish but I love book

It's not my favorite book, but it is not awful. I wish they would include more information about Stephanie, but other than that it's fine.
