Dogfight: War In The Skies (General Military)

Synopsis

These 40 exquisitely detailed postcards showcase some of the finest artwork to have graced the covers of Osprey's aviation books over the years. Depicting aircraft in action - from bi- and tri-planes over the trenches of WWI, the Battle of Britain and the Blitz, to the stealth technology of the modern jet age - this collection of unique artwork is a great addition to any military history collection.

Featuring artwork by such renowned aviation artists as Iain Wyllie, Mark Postlethwaite and Jim Laurier, this box set is the perfect gift for enthusiasts of military and aviation history.

Customer Reviews

A collection of Osprey Publishing's finest aviation artwork.

Very attractive, oversized postcards depicting fighter aircraft in combat vignettes. The majority of the aircraft are from WWII. There are also some combat jets from the Korean War to Desert Storm and a half-a-dozen or so fighter aircraft from the Great War. I had several framed for my son's bedroom walls and they look fantastic.

Not much to say because these photos are just beautiful! They're so nice that I don't even want to send them through the mail to anyone. Love them.

I send these to my grandchildren since they all know I was a pilot. They collect them to show me when I visit.

These are some exquisite cards or should I say works of art. I originally bought these cards with the idea of framing my favorites. I was not disappointed.

DOGFIGHT: WAR IN THE SKIES provides a fine box set featuring artwork by known aviation artists. It's not a book: it's a vivid postcard gift set of some 40 unique scenes of air battle and depicts aircraft in action, from bi- and tri-planes to modern stealth fighters.
