Synopsis

The successful 500 series shines a spotlight on today's most breathtaking ceramic sculptures. Selected from more than 8,000 entries by the distinguished art critic, historian, and professor Glen R. Brown; an elected member of the International Academy of Ceramics in Geneva; these exquisite works will inspire both beginning and professional ceramists, as well as collectors and enthusiasts. They include Esther Shimazu's hand-built, Asian-influenced nudes; Å Von Venhuizen's mixed-media, wheel-thrown stoneware, and Katy's Rush's slip-cast and press-molded porcelain. Every work is amazing.

Glen R. Brown is a full professor of modern and contemporary art history at Kansas State University. He holds an MA and PhD in Art History, an MA in Art Criticism and a BA in Art. He has authored nearly 300 articles and reviews for magazines such as Ceramics: Art and Perception, Sculpture, Ceramics Monthly, Ceramics Technical, Ceramic Review and World Sculpture News.

I bought this book to find some visual inspiration there is however not a whole lot of text to put the pieces in perspective. Plus they have a lot of artist repeated through the pages. If they had over 7000 submissions for work I wish they would curate different artists with new ideas rather than repeating an artist's works and even some of the same old hackneyed ideas for sculpture. Seems like a library or academic type book.

I have a total of five of the '500' books, but this one is my favorite. I am a ceramics sculptor and this is so inspiring. The artists represented in 500 Ceramic Sculptures range from cartoonists to fine artists. That is the beauty of ceramics; it can become pretty much anything you can imagine. If you love ceramics or sculpture or art in general, you will love owning this book.

Great book on ceramic sculpture

These days, a gorgeous printed book for 13 bucks is a wonderful deal. I have about 6 of this series, can't complain. All I need for inspiration are the pics, I'm not looking for information except material and firing temp. I recommend this book, even though it is a little skewed toward one particular conceptual type of ceramic object. The author admits this. Still, quite interesting.

One of the best of the 500 Series. Lots of eye candy if you are into ceramic sculpture. Pieces range from understated to challenging. Pick this one over 500 Vases, it is more varied and interesting.

If you love sculpture, you will love this book. Beautiful photography of an amazing array of ceramic sculptures ranging from small to huge. The settings are everything from standard beauty shots of finished pieces to indoor and outdoor installations.

Will gladly buy more books from this seller! Fast shipping and well packaged! I'm a happy with my 500 series! Got 9 so far! It's time to start reading to gain more knowledge! I'm a happy camper! Beach, books, and coffee! Ciao!
