Customer Reviews

I've just read one story in this anthology so far and will move my rating around as I go. "Summer with his Billionaire Captor" by Toby Aden This is a tease, a fragment of this story. The full story will be released at a later date. There's no resolve for their situation. You'd think after months both men would talk, share, and get to know each other -- Get confident enough to talk about their situation.

But no, it's still the hostage captive / captor scenario and they haven't moved beyond that. They're willing to share their passions and bodies with each other but not their trust. Odd thoughts: Shaw doesn't pick up his camera once on that island. He said he hides behind the camera to escape. Yet here he is, kidnapped in his words, and he's not taking pictures of his island retreat. Shaw never tells Alejandro any facts on his family. Not his parents, where they live, or any old friends - Nothing. How can you locate a missing brother without information? Any little clue might help. Now I enjoy Toby Aden's stories and a couple are re-reads. But this teaser didn't do it. Maybe the complete story fills in the blanks along with a deeper relationship. I couldn't believe that was all there was, unless I want to get the full story, whenever it's released. 2.5 stars for this one. - Dan's Wife

"If You Can't Stand the Heat" - Lisa Oliver -- 5 stars

Stone is an alpha council tracker and on this job he's to apprehend a 'difficult' omega and return him back to his pack. It doesn't take long for Stone to realize the omega, Wyatt, is innocent. The plot is uncovered and a nice twist in solving the problem. Funny how an omega takes charge once he's given a voice. Well done complete short story.

I have to admit that I have only read 3 of the stories and I'll check the others out to see whether they interest me or not.

If You Can't Stand the Heat - I just can't get enough of Lisa Oliver's books. Stone is an alpha wolf and council tracker who's on his latest mission to find and return a runaway omega, Wyatt. Of course, things are never as straightforward or what they seem. This is a highly recommended novella that all Lisa Oliver fans will enjoy. Get reading all. - 5*

I've previously purchased a couple of Frey Ortega books and really enjoyed them so I decided to give this a go. It's interesting as it's different to the others. I found it a little slow to begin with but I did like it. - 3*

Mechanical Heart - Cree Storm

This author is new to me but I have to say I appreciated this novella and was hellishly disappointed when it ended. A good story with a great ballsy bunch of characters. Definitely hoping that it truly doesn't end there. - 5*
