I am a big fan of these history books - espeically the ones about local towns - and I was thrilled to see one about the NY Rangers! I couldn't get to the checkout page quick enough to finish the purchase! A lot of history PACKED into a small volume! Another must have for all NY Ranger fans.

Very few - if any - individuals know more about the New York Rangers than John Halligan, who spend over 25 years traveling with the team as their Director of Public Relations. Here, Halligan puts together a genuine trip down memory lane that will tug at the heart strings of Ranger fans from each and every generation. Halligan's writing places you right back in the period(s) described, and it's a wonderful journey. This book is a collector's item to be cherished for years to come by any and all who loved the Blueshirts, as well as hockey fans, in general, all over North America. Highly Recommended!!!

My husband got this book for Christmas from our daughter (Mommy) and absolutely loved it. Great read for any Ranger fan or any fan of hockey that wants to learn about other teams.
