The Certain Sound Of The Trumpet: Crafting A Sermon Of Authority

Synopsis

responded to the ongoing demand for a "how-to," step-by-step approach to powerful sermon development. Proctor's years of proclaiming the Word of God, pastoring, and effective classroom instruction to pastors, teachers, and seminarians make this a must read for even the seasoned pastor. Foreword by Gardner C. Taylor.

Excellent book. All so-called preachers need to read this every year!

A great book to help you to clarify a sermon and begin to build it for maximum effect. Really helpful piece was identifying the relevant question. Keeps you from pursuing multiple sermons so that you focus on your main idea.

In our postmodern society, it is easy to forget that preaching is not simply an assignment; it is an artform. This classic work reminds ministers from all backgrounds that no matter how anointed you may be, it is imperative that you diligently say what the Spirit led you to say. This book provides the tools necessary to speak on the behalf of God with precision and power. It is definitely a must read for every herald of the Good News.

Great read. Every preacher should have it as part of their library Enlightening for me as a young minister of the gospel. I would recommend it to others as my Theology professor did me...

Dr. Proctor is a seasoned preacher and provides an excellent manual on crafting a sermon with authority. You can tell the author is well read and he not only provides you with the basics and necessities to prepare your sermon; he also provides you with various ideas and samples of how he has approached certain ways of preaching a text. This book is a must read by every preacher (novice or seasoned).

great practical book on sermon preparation. good resource to review time and time again.

Dr. Proctor is a must read. Have you ever played a trumpet? If not a trumpet played correctly is a beautiful sound as the results. Just the same when crafting sermons. If done correctly what a beautiful sound to those who hear the results. Thanks Dr. Proctor.
