A textbook rental for my wife. When I saw the contents, I seriously thought about paying the extra and keeping it. 's textbook rental system is superb, and I would suggest it to anyone who has the odd desire to avoid paying huge prices for books they are likely to never read again.

Book was rented for class, but was quite damaged when I got it. Obviously was heavily used before, and had stains from something that got spilled on it. It gets the job done

This book was loaned at the perfect price and allows me to be able to afford my classes and all of the books and supplies this semester. I love the fact that the price is aligned with what I pay at Chegg. The book is in very good condition.

The book was in horrible shape. Most pages were folded and dirty which made the book seem thicker than what it really was. This of course was a hassle since I had to carry this brick-like-book to class.

This book came in handy for two semesters.

It has worldwide knowledge, culture, and other interesting events.

This rare text gives world context for literature, a feat that rarely occurs. If only more courses would permit teaching this way.

will be sending back tommrow
