Living, Dying, Grieving

Synopsis

Many students wonder what it is like to die or how to cope when someone they love dies. Living, Dying, Grieving helps answer these important questions and provides a mature understanding of what death really is. Taking a "life education" approach, this book offers helpful tips and techniques for mastering a fear of death, suggests helpful ideas for taking care of the business of dying, and encourages students to live longer by adding excitement into their lives. With its unique balance of facts and emotions, both of which surround living, dying, and grieving across cultures and religions, the text gives students the perspective to effectively cope with death and the effects it will have on their lives.

Customer Reviews

Great, easy read. Will now be part of my personal library.

I feel blessed that this is the text for my course, Issues with Death & Dying. This book is filled with relevant information and covers all the diverse and sometimes touchy subjects that we all must address sooner or later.

I needed this book for a class I am taking. Much cheaper than the campus book store. I received it in plenty of time for class. Will buy again from this seller.
