Scott Gregg is a Master Plumber with over 20 years experience in the trade. His sales experience and training helped him realize that the trade is not doing a good job, preparing plumbers to go out and make the money that they should on most jobs. After seeing many lost opportunities Scott began to look for any available material to help plumbing contractors be more successful. He quickly found that there was no available book to help plumbers learn the sales skills they need to make the profit that they should be making on every job. His book will show you how to make more money than other plumbers without doing more work by giving you the skills you need!

Well written.

I thought this was a good book. It covered a lot of the topics I was thinking about. The author also shed some light on other ways to generate profits. I recommend this book to anyone thinking about going into business.

The author does a decent job of introducing basic concepts that any business should implement in order to gain the confidence of customers and earn repeat business. Some of the ideas appear to be obvious but my guess is very few trades people implement. Most of the core concepts could be summed up in a few short pages but again most trades people I know do not do what to many would be obvious.

Great book! if your in the plumbing business or thinking to start your own plumbing business this book is great. I strongly suggest.

The book helps me to understand how to work as a good plumber.

great book. great service. as described and shipped fast!!

Very simple and straight forward, a must read and must believe for new business owners. That said for anyone that's been in business for sometime you will just agree with what's is said.

Helpful. Informative.
