John M. Feierabend is the founder of the Center for Music and Movement in the Early Years and is chair of the music education department of the Hartt School of Music. He is the author of the books in the First Steps in Music series. He lives in West Hartford, Connecticut.

great book recommended by a music teacher friend for my music teacher son's little boy.

great collection of songs. some really obscure stuff, but a lot of good stuff!

This is a great resource to use as I am working with students in schools. Fun songs to sing with students.

This book is beautifully presented in an easy to use format. The songs represent a wide range of experiences that children relate to. Melodies are simple and engaging and draw at times on traditional songs. John Feierabend has selected a delightful collection of songs children will love to listen to and to sing. I've used it from 4 year olds to 10 year olds and they all love it.
