MY FAVORITE 4,212 FACTS: The Author's Best Collected Pieces

Synopsis

MY FAVORITE 4,212 FACTS - is the third book of my personal collection of facts and this time I must have lost my mind because it is even bigger than my second book. This is the 4,212 pieces I thought were the most interesting and accumulated from years in my trivial pursuit of reading biographies, history and references books as well as searching the Internet and paying attention to the news and generally learning about all I can. What do Donald Trump (2016), John Quincy Adams (1824), Rutherford Hayes (1876), Benjamin Harrison (1888) and George W. Bush (2000) have in common? Each failed to win the majority of popular vote, but won the U.S. Presidency because of the Electoral College votes. Tigers in the wild have only an 18% hunting success rate meaning 82% of the time their intended prey escapes. Lions catch their dinner 18% of the time while the cheetah does better at 45%. The cougar / mountain lion / puma brings down an elk or deer about 20% of the time. All of those toothy critters could take lessons from the humble dragonfly and it's boast-worthy 95% catch rate. You've likely visited a Target store and seen those large red balls lined up in front of the entrance. Each one of those red balls is made of concrete and weighs about 2,000 pounds. The tidbits, trivia and other interesting matters are presented in a semi-commentary humorous style, which is to say a wisecrack is injected here and there. I truly believe trivia and facts are an important and overlooked area in our education. The 2014 Corvette holds a unique distinction as it has the ability to travel 53 mph in - reverse. (The average top speed in reverse is 13 mph and some maniac in a Nissan Leaf electric car set the record for twisting his neck and rounding a track backwards at 92 mph.) According to a survey the most difficult to pronounce common word in the English language is the condiment - Worcestershire. (Aka - "steak sauce.") Here's yet another freaking reason why you, me, us and they should stay away from fast food joints. Ready? 51% of people that regularly eat such food are depressed. (You wanna burger? I wanna burger burger & fries, me too. Pizza later? Pepperoni? You read my mind. Are you sad? Me too, make it a double burger will ya?) In New York City, a woman may appear topless in public (wait for it) so long as it is not for business purposes. Only because I think it's funny I'll share with you the fact that the first television commercial for 'Charmin' toilet paper was filmed in - Flushing, New York. It's brain training for filling in the small details of everything else. Give my third and my biggest MY FAVORITE FACTS a read and I'm sure you will enjoy yourself. Hey, and THANKS for reading the first one and the second book too.

Customer Reviews

I have enjoyed several of Mr. West's books as well as works on facts and trivia by others on kindle unlimited. My only issue is that so many of the items are repeated, some multiple times.

The grammar is terrible and the facts are misleading or false. Example: The United States has three times zones ÃfÃ Â ã ã Canada has six. The correct answer is: The US and Canada have 6 time zones.
