Customer Reviews

I found it minimally useful....definitely not for visitors. Fun for resident, perhaps, but not worth buying if you are only visiting. From the perspective of having lived in Kansai for several years, the book was only marginally interesting.

No mention of Nara, although a very worthy Kansai city. Great fun, if you are part of the author's expat clique. Otherwise, save your money for something more useful, expansive and informative. I think calling it "the Best of" is misleading, since it implies the author has sampled the rest, which he obviously didn't. Fun and refreshing style, though.

This was very helpful to us in our recent trip to Kansai/Kyoto/Osaka. No good for Nara, but plenty of other helpful things.

Pithy, funnily written, refreshing change from staid travel books. No good for Nara, but great for Kyoto, Osaka, Kobe. I lived in the area for eight years and still I didn't know most of the places mentioned.

Lacking a chapter on where to stay, but naming a good local lawyer, this is more of a reference for residents, than it is a guide for tourists.
