From Oakland, California, Jeremy Cohen is from a family of five musicians. Classically-trained and a student of Itzhak Perlman and Anne Crowden, Cohen's eclectic style reflects his respect for a wide range of violinists from Perlman and Fritz Kreisler to Joe Venuti and Eddie South. Cohen's orchestral arrangements have been featured by numerous orchestras, including the San Francisco Symphony, and the San Jose and San Francisco Chamber Orchestras. As an educator, he has served on the faculties of the Henry Mancini Institute (Los Angeles), The Jazz School (Berkeley, CA) and the Stanford Jazz Workshop. Jeremy Cohen has received multiple Grammy nominations for CDs he produced and with Quartet San Francisco (Violinjazz Recordings). Most of their multi-genre material has been composed or arranged by Cohen who aspires to widen the repertoire available to modern string players. His sheet music publications include Stylistic Etudes for Solo

Violin, Stylistic Duets for Two Violins, Stylistic Duets for Two Violas, and nearly 20 arrangements and original works for string quartet.

Great book of duos. I first purchased the one for solo violin. The violin parts in this book are pretty much the same with the added part for cello. Fun to do with my musical friends. There are YouTube performances of some of these with Jeremy Cohen should you wish to year how they sound.[...]

Fun music to play and also nice challenging!
