Book by Waldorf, John Taylor

This book is about a relative of mine growing up in Virginia City who wrote on the Territorial Enterprise Newspaper with Mark Twain so it is special to me

As a descendant of a Comstock Mining family that settled in Gold Hill in 1868, I have read this book countless times. It makes life on the Comstock come alive for me in a way that no other book has. I strongly recommend it.

I have a friend, a member of our bookclub, whose grandfather wrote this book. She shares a lot of stories with us, but I thought the book was great. "The Kid" was a genuine rascal!
